STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

As a result of the re-organisation of the Punjab, certain areas have been transferred to Himachal Pradesh, under the Punjab Re-organisation Act, 1966. In the areas newly merged with Himachal Pradesh, which were previously forming a part of Punjab State, the Punjab Co-operative Land Mortgage Act, 1957, is in force. Similarly in the old areas of Himachal Pradesh, the Banks are functioning under the same Act but with a few modifications and this modified Act was extended to this territory in the year 1961. Minor adjustments in this law might have brought about uniformity in the law for the time being in force but for difficulties being felt by the Himachal Pradesh Central Land Mortgage Bank in its day to day functioning and developments in the Land Development Banking during the last twenty-one years it was thought expedient to bring forth a new legislation to govern Land Development Banks in Himachal Pradesh. For this purpose Bill No. 18 of 1976 was introduced in the previous Legislative Assembly which with the dissolution of the previous Legislative Assembly was elapsed under clause (5) of Article 196 of the Constitution of India. Now a new Bill is required to be moved in the State Legislative Assembly.

This Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid object.

SHANTA KUMAR,
Chief Minister.

SIMLA:

The 26th March, 1979.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

The Bill does not involve any financial implication other than those already provided in the existing Punjab Co-operative Land Mortgage Banks Act, 1957 as operative in the areas added to Himachal Pradesh on 1-11-1966 as well as in the areas which constituted the Pradesh before 1-11-1966. However, Clause 13 of the proposed Bill seeks to substitute the words "Central Government" appearing in section 10 of the aforesaid Act as extended to the then Union territory of Himachal Pradesh.

This has been done on the recommendations of the Government of India vide their letter No. 16/60/73-Jud1, dated the 11th December, 1973 that it should be done because now Himachal Pradesh is a full-fledged State.

Since the State Government has to stand guarantee, it has to be responsible for any adverse eventuality. Thus Clause 13 lays contingent liability on the State Government.

Clause 52 (1) of the proposed Bill aims at providing one or more guarantee funds by the State Government, "for the purpose of meeting losses that might arise as a result of loans being made by the Land Development Banks on the titles to immovable property subsequently found to be defective" or "for any other purpose under this Act for which in the opinion of the State Government, it is necessary to provide for or create a separate guarantee fund".

But this is only an enabling provision and the financial requirement cannot be exactly determined now. Very tentatively the estimated figure is put as Rs. 2.00 lacs of non-recurring nature and Rs. 10,000/- only of annual recurring nature.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 55 empowers the State Government to make rules in respect of the matters enumerated therein. The proposed delegation is normal in character.
